Forever Christmas
by Anna Theohari

Good for Reading
Aloud

A magical tale about a little snowman who lives in a snow globe. He wants to get out of his little snowy world where it's always Christmas. Thanks to the magic of Christmas, he manages to get out--only to discover that outside his glassy home, Christmas comes and goes. But inside, it's Christmas, always, and forever.

The Little Prince
by Antoine De Saint-Exupéry Intermediate/Advanced

The classic best-selling novella, loved by children (and adults) the world over, now comes to you in Greek. A great way for stronger readers of Greek to brush up on the language-- they can read and compare the Greek to the English version.

The Wonderful World of Fistikios
by Manos Gavras
Intermediate

In this irreverent and funny story, illustrated with cartoon drawings, little Fistikios (literally Pistachio) from the island of Aegina tries to win the heart of his beautiful classmate, Aphrodite. An amusing book, similar in style to "The Diary of a Wimpy Kid," with a twist-- Fistikios lives in ancient Greece where youngsters face many of the same problems that kids do today: annoying little brothers, bullies, and teachers who won't stop talking. Middle schoolers will love this story--and parents will laugh along with them. A chapter book told in conversational Greek that's not too difficult to read and is chock full of references to Greek mythology and ancient Greek history.

Fistikios From Aegina Part 2: Ancient Greece, You Have Talent!
by Manos Gavras
Intermediate

Fistikios, the charming little guy from Aegina, is still doing his best to get Aphrodite, the prettiest girl in the class, to pay attention to him. In this sequel to Manos Gavras's first funny tale, Fistikios keeps pushing this time with a talent contest. A little irreverent, this lively tale, illustrated with amusing comic-book style illustrations is loads of fun for the middle school reader.

When Little Domenic Got Angry with the Moon
by Stelios Kritikos
Good for Reading Aloud

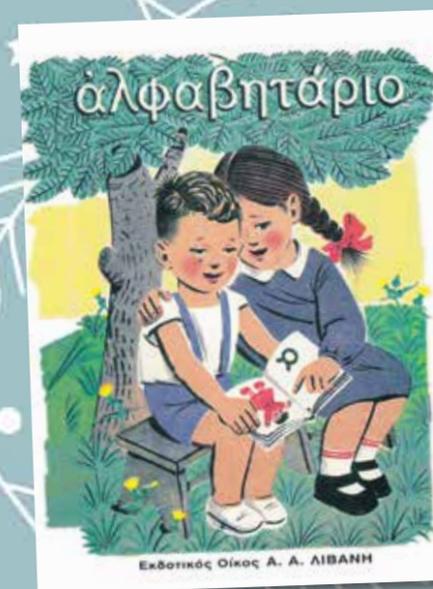

Little Dominic, a boy from Santa Domingo, gets mad at the moon one night because he feels that everything he loves is in danger and he blames the moon. Did he pick the right battle? Getting angry is easy, but is it the right thing to do? Getting angry at the right person, at the right time, for the right reason is not always so simple.
